WHAT MAKES A LEADER GREAT?

The GREAT acronym highlights five key traits of an inspirational leader:

1

Growth Mindset:

Inspirational leaders possess a growth mindset, embracing challenges as opportunities for learning and development. They continuously seek to improve themselves, their teams, and their organizations, adapting to change and encouraging innovation.

2

Relationship Building:

Building strong relationships is a cornerstone of inspirational leadership. Leaders with this trait prioritize open communication, active listening, and empathy. They foster a sense of belonging, collaboration, and trust among team members.

3

Empowerment:

Inspirational leaders empower their team members by delegating responsibilities, providing autonomy, and encouraging them to take ownership of their work. They create an environment where individuals feel valued and capable of making meaningful contributions.

4

Accountability:

Leaders who embody accountability take responsibility for their actions and decisions. They hold themselves and their team members accountable for meeting goals and delivering results. Their integrity and commitment inspire others to do the same.

5

Tenacious:

In a rapidly changing world, inspirational leaders are tenacious. They are persistent and determined, never giving up in the face of challenges or setbacks.

By embodying the traits of the GREAT acronym, leaders can inspire their teams, drive success, and create a positive and thriving work environment.
